

Mª del Mar Alcaraz

Senior Associate
Tax

mmalcaraz@ramoncajal.com
+34 93 494 74 82

Experience

Tax Associate at the Barcelona office since 2015.

She has wide experience of continuous advisory work with corporate clients and individual clients in connection with both direct and indirect taxation, and also business planning and restructuring operations.

She also has a wealth of experience in the verification and investigation processes carried out by Tax Inspection Authorities, and subsequent taxation procedure work, in both the administrative and contentious-administrative environments.

Before joining Ramón y Cajal Abogados, she worked in the Ernst and Young Abogados tax division for over 9 years, and continued her professional career at Viallegis Asesores Legales y Tributarios and Laudis Consultor S.L.P.

Education

- Degree in Law from Barcelona's Universidad Autónoma.
- Master for Corporate Executives and Tax Experts. "Abat Oliva" Institute of Higher Studies.
- Course on Spain's General Accounting Charter. Centro de Estudios Financieros.

Teaching

- Lecturer in Tax Law at the Universidad Autónoma's Law Faculty, Barcelona (2001-2005).
- Head of training in tax issues for audit with Ernst & Young (2001-2005).

Publications

- Publication of law paper: “Tax loss carryforwards in restructuring operations”.

Affiliations

- Barcelona Bar Association (Ilustre Colegio de Abogados de Barcelona).
- Spanish Association of Tax Advisors (Asociación Española de Asesores Fiscales, or AEDAF).

Languages

English, Spanish