

Ramón y Cajal

Eduardo Reigadas de la Vega

Senior Associate

ereigadas@ramoncajal.com

+34 91 576 19 00

+34 619 522 672

experience

Eduardo Reigadas is Senior Associate of the Civil Litigation, Insolvency and Arbitration Practice and joined the firm in September 2010.

Within the area of Litigation, he has experience in all civil and commercial legal proceedings, focusing in particular on disputes relating to bank and securities market contracts and agreements and enforcement proceedings and procedures in commercial matters (challenging of corporate resolutions, directors' liability, etc). He also has experience in advising on matters concerning general private law and insolvency law.

He acts as lawyer in national and international commercial arbitration before various arbitration courts (ICC, CIMA, Spanish Court of Arbitration, etc.) and has been secretary of the Arbitral Tribunal.

education

- Degree in Law, Universidad Complutense of Madrid.
- Master's Degree in Business Law, Universidad Antonio de Nebrija.
- Various specialist courses on arbitration.

languages

English.

associations

Member of the Madrid Bar Association (Ilustre Colegio de Abogados de Madrid).