

Ramón y Cajal

Enrique Molina Benito

Partner

emolina@ramoncajal.com

+34 91 576 19 00

+34 689 032 066

experience

Enrique joined Ramón y Cajal Abogados in 2010 as Partner and Head of the Criminal Litigation Department.

Enrique has a solid background in all types of criminal law, at the national and international levels, due to his experience as Public Prosecutor (on leave) for the Higher Courts of Justice of Madrid and Barcelona and the Spanish National Court.

education

- Law Degree, Universidad San Pablo CEU, 1987. Special distinction as the highest academically ranked member of his graduating class (premio extraordinario).
- Appointment as judge, selected through competitive (public) entrance exam, 1988.
- Appointment as public prosecutor, selected through competitive (public) entrance exam, 1989.

teaching

- Professor and Advisor, Centre for Legal Studies, Spanish Justice Administration.
- Professor, Escuela de Práctica Jurídica Federico de Castro.
- Professor, Madrid Bar Association (Ilustre Colegio de Abogados de Madrid).
- Professor of the executive rank (escala ejecutiva), Spanish National Police Corps.
- Professor for the courses Promotion to Commissioner, Division for Training and Improvement, Spanish National Police Corps.
- Professor of documentation and procedure, information section, Police Academy of Catalunya, Spanish General Directorate for Police.

languages

English.

publications

Enrique frequently collaborates with several publications specializing in litigation, such as the Revista de Derecho de Seguros Privados, Iuris, Aranzadi and Dimar.

affiliations

Madrid Bar Association (Ilustre Colegio de Abogados de Madrid).