

Ramón y Cajal

Luis Briones Bori

Partner

lbriones@ramoncajal.com

+34 93 494 74 82

+34 670 487 944

experience

Luis joined the Firm as Head Partner of the Litigation Practice in the Barcelona office in February 2012. He has extensive experience providing legal advice, as well as representing defendants in judicial and arbitration proceedings in civil and commercial law. He has been a key figure in litigation for more than fifteen years, acting in civil court in all its sections.

Luis also regularly participates in arbitration proceedings before various Spanish national courts, including the Madrid Civil and Mercantile Arbitration Court (CIMA), the Barcelona Arbitration Court (TAB) and the Arbitration Court of the Madrid Bar Association (Ilustre Colegio de Abogados de Madrid).

He is also highly experienced in advising on franchising networks, both from contractual and procedural standpoints, and has been involved in several judicial proceedings on this matter.

education

Law Degree, Universidad San Pablo CEU (1996).

teaching

Luis has participated in various seminars on construction law in the legal practice masters programme of the Barcelona Bar Association (Colegio de la Abogacía de Barcelona) as well as in the Course on Technical Sales Consultants given by the Barcelona Chamber of Commerce.

languages

English.

affiliations

Barcelona Bar Association (Ilustre Colegio de la Abogacía de Barcelona).